North Charleston

With more than 67,000 residents in 2000, the North Charleston Planning Area had the highest population of all the planning areas in Charleston County. The area lost more than 11,000 people during the 1990's, a decrease of 15 percent.

In 1990, 73 percent of the population was over the age of 18. By 2000, 72 percent of the population was over the age of 18, a decrease of almost 17 percent of the total number of persons over the age of 18.

White residents, who made up more than 56 percent of the population in 1990, made up only 42 percent of the population in 2000. This was due a decrease of almost 19,000 persons, or 42 percent in the White population. Conversely, the African American population grew by 5,000 people, or 16 percent, between 1990 and 2000. The "Other" population increase by 26 percent.
